One (1) letter should testify to your character and/or your involvement in extra-curricular/service or leadership activities. These referees should be persons who are able to speak in detail to your character and comment critically on whether your extra-curricular, non-academic requirements and leadership traits are aligned with the scholarship’s criteria. The character referees need not necessarily be affiliated to your current university.

A good referee is one who knows you well. Similarly, referees should not be personal friends, contemporaries or relatives. Choose reliable people who are likely to respond to your request for a detailed reference, as their letters will be key to your application.

Who can write my academic reference letter? Who can write my character reference letter?

Please see below some guidance on the types of people who we recommend should write your academic and character reference letters.

What if my Referee has changed colleges since my graduation? Or if my referee has retired and is no longer working in my school? Can I still ask him to refer me?

Yes, referees who have moved on from previous positions or who have retired are still valid as referees. You can put “ex-” or “former-” as their designation. E.g., “Former-professor” or “ex-supervisor”. And you can also put their former institution where he/she taught.

Give referees at least 2-3 weeks to complete the reference letters. It is your responsibility to ensure that referees submit their references online by the reference letter deadline, i.e. 11.59pm IST on Wednesday the 23rd February 2022. Please note that if both your reference letters are not uploaded by the submission deadline, your application will be considered incomplete. You can track the progress of your references through the application form. Ask your referees’ permission before listing them as referees.

You must register the referees in the online application system so that they can upload their recommendation letters directly into the application. Let your referees know that they should expect an email from the Reliance Foundation Scholarships team with the link to upload their letters.

The system-generated email will be sent to the referee and it may land in their spam/junk folder or may be declined by the firewall in their system. After registering a referee, applicants should confirm with them whether they have received the unique reference link (ask them to check the spam/junk folder if the email is not in the inbox). Referees will receive platform generated emails every week reminding them to submit their letters. If they still do not receive the reference link, please write to us at rf.scholarships@reliancefoundation.org

The letter may be uploaded as a PDF, or inputted as text directly into the text box in the platform.

We do not require a formal letterhead or signature.

References must remain confidential. Applicants cannot upload reference letters themselves.

The Guidance to Referees is available in the Referee Portal for Referees to access when they login to write their references. This will have all the information they will need. The Guidance to Referees will also be shared with the referees through email, once you nominate them through the Application Platform.

Referees will have access to the ‘Guidance to Referees’ when they log into the Application Portal to submit their references.

All references must be written in English. After the reference letter is submitted, it cannot be edited.

If you need to exclude a referee from your referee list, there is an option to do so by selecting the referee field and clicking the exclude/delete option (red cross above the table). If you exclude/delete any referees, any letters they submit will not be reviewed and evaluated by our panelists. Once you exclude/delete a referee, you may input the details of a further referee in his/her place.

Please ensure that the two (2) reference letters are submitted/uploaded by your referees by the reference letter deadline, i.e. 11.59pm IST on Wednesday the 23rd February 2022.
